RECENT PROJECTS

Frontend Mentor

Challenge Dashboard: <https://www.frontendmentor.io/profile/brianfarmerllc>

Frontend Mentor is resource for junior and mid-level front end developers. I've used it to improve my front-end coding skills creating solutions to their real-world challenges while working off a professional design. As some who does not have a lot of professional development experience, I find these challenges and the community itself invaluable.

The link provided takes you to my solutions dashboard where you can see all my live solutions and associated GitHub repositories.
